

D E S I D E R I A

Desideria is a singer, dancer and music producer originating from the Swedish island of Gotland. Within avant pop, experimental electronic and ambient she sings in english and the gotlandic language guthnic, giving a new context to a language that's going extinct today.

Desideria envisions stretching the boundaries between pop and scultural sound art, as well as boundaries between sound, dance and somatic movement.

Desideria's first LP is finalised but not currently released.
